Liability: Hunting is a potentially dangerous activity. It is essential that you follow the advice of our staff at all times. Trophy Mountain Ranch accepts no responsibility for illness, accident or loss whatsoever incurred in the course of the hunt or for any expense arising from such illness, accident or loss. Hunter agrees to follow all Local, State, and Federal laws in the course of his stay and indemnify Trophy Mountain Ranch and it's parent companies from any such stated events.

Ranch Policy: Trophy Mountain Ranch guides are trained to assist our hunters in finding the bull they want. The ultimate decision to take a bull is entirely up to the hunter. A wounded animal is considered a kill. If a hunter wounds an animal, as determined by the guide, he will be billed the full amount for that bull. We do our utmost to ensure not only a successful hunt, but a memorable hunt as well. Each hunter is expected to make a reasonable effort to harvest his animal. Often it is necessary for the hunter to spend the full time allotted to get him an animal. If the hunter chooses to cut his hunt short, full payment for the hunt is still required. Hunters are expected to follow safe hunting practices. It is our policy that bullets are not to be chambered until the shot is to be taken.

Health: Please describe any physical or medical needs that may affect your ability to hunt.

Dietary needs or preferences: _____

(Prior notice of your needs is necessary to ensure the quality of your hunting experience.)

The hunter accepts all responsibility for the dangers/risks associated with this hunt & associated activities and will not hold Trophy Mountain Ranch or any of its employees liable for accident, injury, illness or loss. This agreement, signed by both parties, reserves the hunting dates for hunter(s) named above.
